

YOLO COUNTY
SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT
PRESS RELEASE

|       |   |
|-------|---|
| RE:   | New Animal Services and Correctional Officers |
| DATE: | November 26, 2007                             |

Contact: Michele Wallace, Public Information Officer – (530) 406-5163

There are some new faces at the Yolo County Sheriff's Department in Woodland. Nathan Reese and Victor B. Mackey have started their positions as Correctional Officers. Sarah DeRego is a new Animal Services Officer.

Sarah DeRego previous worked in Sacramento County, for Animal Care and Regulations. She lives in the area with her husband, Tony, and their daughter, Logan, who is 11 months old.

Nathan Reese and his wife, Delilah, are from Stockton. He has spent the last four years teaching middle and high school students.

Victor B. Mackey has come from Sonoma County, where he had worked as a security officer. He lives with his wife, Melissa, and their two month old son Bradley.

They expressed enthusiasm to be working at the Yolo County Sheriff's Department and to serve the community. Sheriff Prieto stated, "The new recruits have a great attitude and have exhibited dedication toward their new positions. It is a pleasure to welcome these new officers into the department."