

YOLO COUNTY
SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT
PRESS RELEASE

Re:	'Fraud Fair 2008' Being Held Next Week for the Public
Date:	July 3, 2008

Contact: Michele Wallace, Public Information Officer (530) 406-5163

July is National Fraud Awareness Month. Yolo County Sheriff's Department is partnering with other regional agencies to host a 'Fraud Fair' on Tuesday, July 8, 2008 at the Yolo County Fair Grounds, beginning at 11:30a.m., for the public.

Everyone is invited to attend the informational fair at no cost. Lunch will be provided by Ludy's BBQ for a charge of fifteen dollars per person. Lunch tickets need to be purchased in advance, by contacting the District's Attorney Office, Dan Stroski, at (530) 666-8380.

Learn about the various types of fraud, how you can prevent being frauded, and what to do if you discover that fraud has taken place.

Other sponsors include Yolo County District Attorney's Office, police departments from Davis, West Sacramento, Woodland, and Winters, the California Departments of Employment Development, Motor Vehicles, Insurance, Bureau of Automotive Repair, State Contractor's License Board, and the Northern California Fraud Investigator's Association.