Contact: Sergeant Lance Faille, (530)406-5187

Date: December 5, 2011

Nine new employees joined the staff at the Yolo County Sheriff's Office. On Monday, Yolo County Sheriff Ed Prieto hired 9 employees, 5 of those are deputies and 4 are correctional officers. A swearing-in ceremony was held at the Yolo County Sheriff's Cameron Training Center. All four correctional officers and three deputies will be assigned to the Monroe Detention Facility. Two of the deputies will be assigned to Court Services section.

Arthur Chavolla, Rita Ortiz, Alfonso Villasenor and Raichel Weiser-Till were all hired as correctional officers. Sean Galey, Juan Ceja, James Criste, Almir Dugonjic and Jonathan Fielding were all sworn in as deputies. Galey and Ceja had been employed by the Sheriff's Office as provisional deputies working at Court Services Section. Criste, Dugonjic and Fielding were reserve deputies with the Sheriff's Office prior to today's ceremony.

These new employees were hired to assist in the influx of prisoners that is expected from the implementation of AB109 which in part transfers state prisoners to local jails.
